Now that you're here at Stanford, it's time to invite you to join the decrepit, old Jester in a mean, cut-throat game called college days. Come and join him on a journey of indeterminate length (that 4 years bullshit is just that) into the depths of the sublime, the sarcastic, and the obnoxious. We're all college students, and what else are college students supposed to do other than toilet paper the homes of our most hated professors and administrators? What else can you think to do other than pour honey all over your neighboring residence hall's lounge, and then run through with slit open feather pillows causing thousands of dollars of damage? Join the Jester as he fills balloons with aftershave, and revel with him as they disintegrate in a mighty splash on the windshields of unsuspecting motorists. Turn your dorm-room into a den of inequity. Yell and scream and play loud music at all times. Point your speakers out your window in the direction of the faculty housing. Play hard-grinding, gut-wrenching, mind-bending rock and roll and let everyone know that this is college. Let the old, pompous stuffed-shirts move away to Los Altos if they want peace and quiet. Come and join the Impertinent One--come and do everything that they say can't be done. But what's the matter? Are you scared? Are you afraid you might get in trouble? Are you afraid you might not graduate? Well ippy dippy doo. Welcome to Stanford. ☺

Dear Sir or Madam:

While I was honored by Harvard's offer of admission, after a difficult period of decision I have decided to attend Stanford University, and so am sending you this letter for your records as you provided no reply card, as does every other institution of higher learning in the known world. I would like to thank the admissions committee for the time they devoted to the business of selection, blah blah blah blah blah blah blah blah blah blah. While the decision was agonizing, there was one fact which seemed to tip the proverbial scale.

AVERAGE TEMPERATURE IN JANUARY (°F)

Boston	San Francisco
31.5	63.4

How could I resist? If you don't understand how, think about it again in January, say, on the Expressway during a snow emergency. But anyway, thanks again.

California bound,

SEX

Yuri would like to have sex.

SEX

So, he goes to the Bureau of Organs and gets a permit for a dick.

BUREAU OF ORGANS

BUREAU OF USAGE

Yuri then goes to the Bureau of Usage to get a permit to operate a dick.

DISBURSEMENT

Then he goes to the office of Organ Disbursement and gets his dick. It is two inches long. Members of the Politbureau have a minimum six inches. Gorbachev's dick is 12 inches long. Stalin's dick is fifteen. Lenin's dick is on display in Red Square.

Now Yuri must find a woman. But everyone in Russia looks like a man. Only the government knows who the women are. So he applies to the Bureau of Gender to get the name of a woman.

6 months later, he gets the name of a woman

Dear Comrade! Congratulations
the name of your woman is:

Best of Luck!

So, Yuri goes to the Black Market. He can get a woman for 300 rubles or a sheep for 1000 --- Once with the sheep, Yuri starts with some good Old Fashioned Charm.

Hi. My name is Yuri. Would you like to have sex?

But the sheep was really a disguised member of the KGB

WHOOPIE DIAPHRAGM. Secretly place it in that special place. When your boyfriend is ready, watch the real fun and "whoopie" begin. Strange sound effects will fill the air much to his embarrassment and utter humiliation. Also effective as a subtle reminder to irresponsible boyfriends to utilize contraception.

DISAPPEARING SPERM. Spill or squirt this incredible imitation reproductive fluid on clothes, bed-sheets, and innocent passersby. They'll scream with the horror of lawsuits and "rape!" but wait 5 minutes and it will vanish leaving no stain or trace. No nasty messes 9 months later. Great at dinner parties and formal occasions.

BE A VENTRILOQUIST! Or just sound like one. It's fun to be a ventriloquist, and offend as many people as possible. Fool everyone when your voice comes from under a skirt or a pair of Hot Pants. Large, uncomfortable gadget fits in mouth.

SQUIRTING BREAST. Amaze your lover. Imagine his surprise when he is in the depths of fore-play and a stream of water (or scalding hot oil) squirts from this Life-Like breast replica. Watch them run.

ATOMIC VIBRATOR JOY BUZZER. Wind it up and hand it to a friend. Watch as they get the surprise of their life—"Hey, that isn't a cucumber! Ouch!" Completely harmless. Guys, get one for your girl and don't forget mom. Makes a great stocking "stuffer."

My dog from Swaziland

My dog is from Swaziland. And he will get you. Yes, he and his carnivorous legions of Ginsu II toting shoe salesmen will dice your body into one hundred and thirty bite-sized tidbits and ship them across the country in trucks. Big trucks that have rock crushing tires. Tires designed by the demon spawn Michelin Man himself. My dog from Swaziland knows where you live.

You cannot escape my dog from Swaziland just because you have dined with Henry Kissinger, for my dog from Swaziland has dined with Jim Nabors, who has revealed to him all your darkest secrets. And he has learned neck-splitting martial arts from men who live in abandoned refrigerators. Cold, grimy refrigerators that drive men to mutilate at the first sight of two day old tuna fish. The tuna fish in your refrigerator is now two days old. My dog from Swaziland is going to get you.

Your growling paranoia cannot hold back my dog from Swaziland. There is a direct passage from my dog from Swaziland's cage to your closet. Do not open your closet door. At any cost. Not even if your roommate wants to borrow your white Oxford shirt, for my dog will be soaked with blood. Do not even look at your closet, for my dog from Swaziland may already be there. No! Don't look!

My dog from Swaziland has maimed and slaughtered one thousand people just to train for your death. Do you remember the last time you went to the store for groceries? My dog from Swaziland was there, watching you. You should not have bought Twinkies. But now it is too late. You cannot run from my dog from Swaziland. He wears diesel powered sneakers.

Yes, I am sure that my dog from Swaziland will murder you. And no one will ever know. Think of it. You're scared shitless. And there aren't even any dogs in Swaziland.

Because they are all in your closet . . .

Tour of Stanford

Welcome to Stanford, the best university west of the Atlantic. I'm your overly-enthusiastic student guide.

WOW! Cool, man. We're your overly-gullible group of high school seniors who got a week off to visit west coast colleges and Disneyland.

Excuse me, sir, but wasn't there a more famous piece named "Rodin vs. Mothra", first cast, I believe, in 1910 in the town of L'aire Bisqu ette?

I DON'T KNOW! Let's just go on to...

Right now you're standing on the dock at Stanford's lovely aquatic wonderland, Lake Lagunita.

The lake isn't here right now, but that's okay. Stanford students are more concerned with learning...

Stanford students love the outdoors and love sports, especially volleyball. The rules are simple. I hit to you and you hit back. Everyone get ready. 1... 2...

Here at Stanford's famous Rodin Garden, we see Rodin's most popular piece, "Rodin vs. Godzilla."

The office of President Donald "Duke" Kennedy. He's very busy today counting tuition revenue, but he has agreed to visit with us for a moment.

Hi President Kennedy. Oh, allow me.

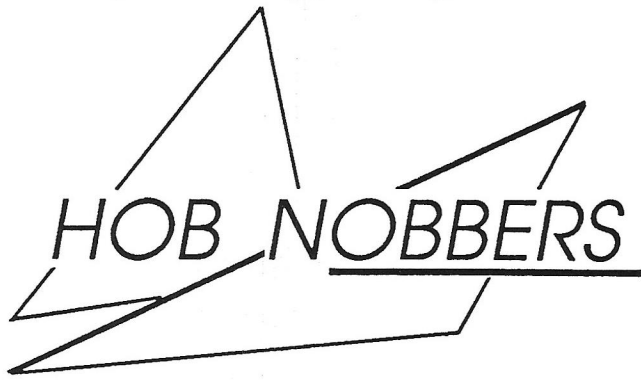

After all, students are here to get an education.

But here's where the real action goes on.

PLANT LIFE

Mendel was wrong, and his experiments were sinful. The pistils of plants should not be touched by human hands, but they may be blown by the wind. It is correct for bees to fertilize flowers, but not for profit, and only if they don't enjoy it. The church frowns upon cross-pollination of dis-similar species. Scientific farming is immoral. Contour plowing offends God's plan for natural erosion. If the Creator wanted nitrates in the soil, he would have put them there. Tractors are permitted because they provide horse-power, and horses are good. Improved gardening is futile; time is better spent praying for re-admittance into "The Garden." Giant artichokes are prickly, but have a good heart. Disease resistant plants will hasten armageddon. Don't spill your seed. Increased yields are proof of man's greed. The holy wine must not be made from seed less grapes. Graft is for politicians. Citrus farmers fearing the freeze risk the wrath of smudge pots in Hell. Hydroponics went out with the Great Flood. No hybrid plant will be admitted to Heaven. Irrigation is man's ingratitude for rain. Weeds with nine leaves are the sacred herb. Crop dusting should precede the waxing moon. Jesus never ate corn. Moslems who plow facing east shall be forgiven.

ANIMALS

Studs are good, artificial insemination is bad. Sheep need shepherds. Hormones may be used to fatten cattle for seven years, then there must be seven lean years. Thou shalt not covet animal husbandry. Cows using steroids are banned from the Olympics. Geldings that sing in the church choir are special. It is traditional to keep the horse in front of the cart. Good animal breeding helps good animal manners. Birds do not sow, nor do they wear clothes. Laden camels will not pass through a hypodermic. The sheep in the manger had virgin wool, but they were ugly. Golden calves should not be worshipped, but black angus are holy in India. Sheep that are black shall be cast out. A pot roast serves a family, but five fish can serve a mountain. If you have ninety-nine sheep, there is one missing. Maidens may touch the udders; men must wear gloves. Give up debts for Lent. Mass slaughter is permitted in times of war or dropping prices.

Lead your animals two by two. Beastiality is forbidden, except for Jesuits.

Hello there! How ya' doin'?

HOLY SHIT! The toilet paper is talking!

Don't flip out. Just because I'm toilet paper doesn't mean that I'm not an average guy like everyone else. Please talk to me.

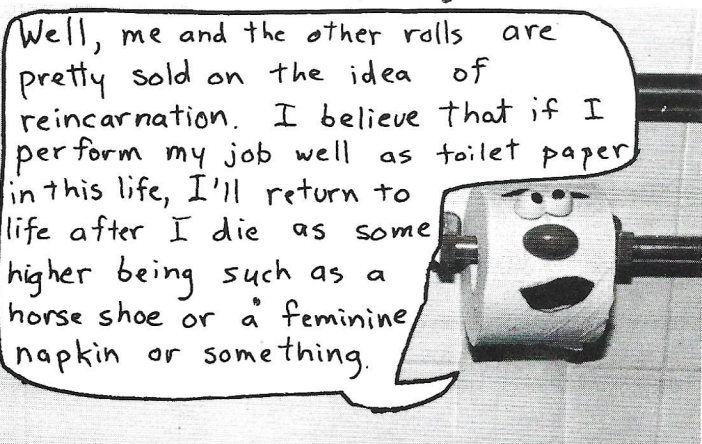

Oh I'm sorry. Its just that I've never talked to toilet paper before.

But now that I think of it, there is something I've always wanted to ask toilet paper.

Oh? What is that?

Do you have perceptions of God and/or the afterlife?

Well, me and the other rolls are pretty sold on the idea of reincarnation. I believe that if I perform my job well as toilet paper in this life, I'll return to life after I die as some higher being such as a horse shoe or a feminine napkin or something.

Hmm, that's interesting... Do you think you're ready to test your beliefs now?

You mean — it's time?

Yes, but I'll tell you what — I'll give you a last request.

Well, if it's not too much trouble, I have two.

No problem.

Ok. Well, if you can, flush me quickly. But most importantly...

4 out of 5 premed students recommend Pizza A Go Go

A recent survey asking 5 premed students which pizza they would recommend to their future patients, showed that 4 out of 5 of them preferred PIZZA A GO GO pizza. When asked why, approximately 20% cited the outstanding taste, while another 20% found the thick crust to be the deciding factor. Another 40% indicated that the fresh dough, sauce and toppings made the difference between PIZZA A GO GO and the competition.

Only one premed student out of the entire survey did not endorse the product. His reaction was "I have reservations about putting my reputation on the line considering the excessive amount of cheese on their pizza. You know, that could present a cholesterol problem. Also, I figure the cardboard pizza that the competition serves is fairly high in fiber." Obviously a weenie.
